M. A. Henry Consulting, LLC Names CEO

ST. LOUIS, MO – October 3, 2005 – M. A. Henry Consulting, LLC, the St. Louis region's leading evaluator of externally funded education projects, has announced the hiring of Keith S. Murray as Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Murray brings 20 years of national experience in public and private sector research, project management, and analysis to his new post. Most recently he has led grant and development support efforts for St. Louis region academic and cultural institutions. "Keith offers strengths in management, research and communication and wide experience with the St. Louis funded-project community. His service as CEO will help guide our company through a period of substantial growth while continuing to provide the highest quality evaluation services to our clients," said Martha Henry, EdD, the company's president.
